Thank you for your interest in applying to become a College Bound Opportunities (CBO) Scholar. CBO is a not-for-profit organization providing qualified students from Highland Park High School (HPHS), Deerfield High School (DHS), Lake Forest High School (LFHS), Cristo Rey St. Martin (CRSM), and Buffalo Grove High School (BGHS) with personal mentoring, academic support, career preparation, and financial support as needed while in college, to ensure every CBO Scholar graduates college. In the eleven years since its origination, CBO has assisted more than 200 students in realizing their goal of a college education.

CBO welcomes all qualified applicants (US citizenship not required). To qualify to become a CBO Scholar, you must:

CBO staff will help you and your family complete college, financial aid, and scholarship applications. CBO staff and your mentor will continue to assist you during your years in college.

CBO also offers its scholars the opportunity to earn financial support (on an as-needed basis), and which is renewable each year of college providing you maintain a minimum GPA of 2.0 and carry the minimum number of credit hours each semester that will allow you to graduate in four years.

Please note: CBO Scholars are required to attend and live at a four-year college/university. We do not financially support students who attend community college or those who live at home while attending a four-year school.
